WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS AT HOME.

HE REVIEWS HIS SOUTHERN VISIT—A GRAPHIC VINDICATION OF THE RIGHTS OF SOUTHERNERS—A SOUND SUMMUM BONUM—"LET US BE FRIENDS."

At a large Democratic and Conservative meeting held at Weymouth, Mass., on the 22nd, Hon. John Quincy Adams addressed them as follows:

Mr. President, My Friends and Neighbors: You must not expect me to make a speech, for I have none to make—in fact I have got none made—but as I look around me and see many friendly and familiar faces, it occurs to me that after all, I should like to say a few words in an off hand and friendly way as one neighbor talks to another, about the experience I have had in the course of the last two or three weeks. As you all know I have made a little trip to the South during that time. I wished to see what a reconstructed State was, and I went to South Carolina for that purpose. I have come back with this conviction, though I do not know how the other conservative citizens of the Union may feel about it. I never intend to stop, to relax for one moment, in the heartiest, most earnest and most honest efforts I can make to remove all such "blessings" as reconstruction from the necks of every one of my fellow citizens. (Loud cheers.)

The issue in this campaign to me is simply this and nothing more. Reconstruction, as you know, is the Radical constitution. It is the only constitution now in ten States of the Union, and what is it? It is simply this—the rule of the military and nothing else. In order that it may not jar too much upon the nerves of a republican people to see eight millions of their fellow citizens held down by the bayonet, they have brought in a great mass of three or four millions of poor, ignorant, degraded black men, and set them up in a row, as it were across the Southern States, and because you cannot see the bayonet behind them, they say, "That is a republican form of government." How republican? What is this republican form of government?—Why look at the condition of those States! Suppose that almost all the voters in this Commonwealth should suddenly be deprived of the franchise and in their place it was bestowed upon a set of men who were entirely ignorant of the value and responsibility of the voting power, who knew nothing about any of the principles in regard to which they were voting. Suppose such a class of men were to be put over you, of course you would not like it; you would feel uncomfortable and disagree, and you would not suffer their rule if you could help it. Yet this is precisely the condition in which South Carolina is to day. She is governed by a set of men who, if the people were left to themselves, would have no more chance of holding the offices of your government they now hold, than I should of being elected King of Great Britain in place of Queen Victoria, if I were to go to England to morrow. (Laughter.) And these officials having no hold upon the esteem of the people, as they call them down there in their expressive, though slightly inelegant language, "scalawags" and "carpet-baggers" cannot command any of their respect and confidence. The consequence of this is that they have to be supported in their places by the bayonets of United States soldiers.—And as there are not United States soldiers enough at the South to keep the people entirely "contented," nor enough to make the government thoroughly "Democratic," every day or two they are calling for new soldiers in order to support these thoroughly "Democratic" and "Republican" governments, and that is reconstruction! My Southern Democratic friends down there greeted me in a way which I shall never forget to my dying day. The kindness, the warmth, the consideration, the order which they showed in welcoming any Northerner especially from Massachusetts, who would go down there and say to them a kind word—who would not treat them like boys, and call them rebels, traitors, miserable rascals or villains—went to my heart.—They asked me to say to my fellow citizens at the North that they fought you in the war; they believed that they were right; that they fought you as hard as they could; and when the war was done they frankly abandoned that they had fought for. They said we had whipped them; we had conquered what we demanded during the war, and they were ready to give it up. They would fight no longer, and all they asked was friendship and kindness. What they deserved from us at the North was mercy, the hand of kindness, good fellowship and brotherly love. (Loud applause.) They want no more contest, no more ill blood; they want merely to shake hands, saying—We fought and now the fight is done, let us be friends. That is the feeling of the mass of the whole people I met at the South. I saw no unkindness, no sort of feeling indicating unkindness towards any of the people at the North. That they may be treated in decency and kindness they do ask, and that is what I pray of every one of you to labor. (Applause.) It is the thing, it seems to me, that we need here at the North as much as they need it at the South. All that they ask, and all that the Democratic party at the North seek to accomplish is, that we may be allowed to come together once more in peace and amity; that this incubus of reconstruction may be taken off the people; that these soldiers may be taken away from between us, and that we—all of us—once more may feel—North as well as South, white man as well as black man—the benefits of Union under the old system of Government.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF CONNECTICUT.

Below we print the stirring address of the Democratic Committee of Connecticut, published by Hon. James Gallagher, the chairman. We trust the wise commands will be loyally obeyed:

NEW HAVEN, CONN., October 21.

The Connecticut Democracy:

But a few days are left before the great battle for constitutional government shall be decided.

NOW is the time for vigorous, united action. The Democracy everywhere in the primary elections have made immense gains. Radical fraud and bribery have done their worst, but the Democratic masses are firm and unflinching and confident. Our gallant standard-bearers, Seymour and Blair, are backed by patriotic masses that know no such word as fail.

Cowards may go to the rear. The old guard steps forward firmly to the front.

Onward, fellow-Democrats, onward, is the cry. Let every Democratic heart respond to it, and the 3d of November will be a day of glory to our cause, worthy of all who honor the names and the principles of Washington, Jefferson, and Jackson.

By order of the State Central Committee.

JAMES GALLAGHER,

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

FOR CONGRESS,

HON. SION H. ROGERS, OF WAKE.

HOLDING THE ELECTIONS.

We have done what was plainly our duty, in presenting to the Registrars who are at the same time superintendents of the elections in this State on Tuesday next, and most of whom are Radicals, their duty to hold the elections according to law. We have presented to them and to our readers, the opinions of five eminent lawyers of this City, as to what the law is, and have urged a compliance with it. Gov. Holden has sought to defeat the law and its objects, by procuring from "Attorney General" Coleman, (a mere nonie in the law,) a counter opinion in accordance with his wishes, and he expects the Registrars to hold the elections in accordance with that opinion, in violation of the law. We learn from various sources that it is the purpose of the Radical Registrars to compel the voters of the State, to cast but one ballot with the names of all the candidates for Electors, for Congress and for the Senate and House of Representatives, all in one box.

The design of the law is obviously to prevent confusion and difficulty and to give to every voter the right which the law guarantees to him, the privilege of exercising a free and unbiased choice of candidates and to vote for whom he pleases.—This is right—it is simple justice. The design of Gov. Holden is to defeat the choice of voters and to force every man to consolidate his votes for his party nominees, no matter how objectionable they may be to him personally. This is a plain violation of the rights of the voter and an attempt to force men to vote for some of the candidates, simply upon party grounds in opposition to their wishes.

This determination of Gov. Holden, is backed by his organ, the Standard, which tells its readers very plainly, that the will of Gov. Holden will be enforced, whether it is law or not, inasmuch as all appeals to the Courts for the violation of law, will avail nothing—"will not hurt much," if they do as the "Governor" and the "Attorney General" advises them to do. As much as to say, the Courts will not inflict any punishment upon the violaters of the law, when it is done at the bidding of Gov. Holden and by the advice of the "Attorney General," or if the Courts dare do it, the "Governor" and "Attorney General" will see to it they are not hurt. Such are the teachings of Radicalism in North Carolina and the fruits of loyalty!

The issues in this canvass are too important, too sacred, to allow the honest men of the State to be turned aside from their purpose to elect men of their own choice in the coming election. Our people may be compelled to vote for a dozen different candidates for three or four different offices on one slip, to be put in one box, yet we implore men of all parties not to be forced by this trick to vote for men for any office, they do not approve. If it be necessary, in order to vote for candidates of your choice, whose names are not on the Radical or Democratic ticket, put such names on as you desire to vote for, no matter who dislikes it. In this District, there are men who may be inclined to vote the Grant ticket, but who prefer Col. Rogers, a man known and beloved by men of all parties, to Colonel J. T. Deweese, for Congress. Our people know Sion H. Rogers. Many are willing to trust him in Congress, though they may want to vote for Grant. To all such we say, put Col. Rogers' name on your tickets and vote for him for Congress, if you prefer him to Deweese. It is your right and privilege to do so if you desire, and no one has a right to object. Let every man we say, vote according to his best judgment, for whom he pleases. But let every man be sure to vote.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS.

Not only be sure to get tickets, but get them from the right sources, and be sure to examine them or have them examined by reliable persons, before voting.

We learn that the Standard says, that the Democrats have gotten out Grant tickets with the Democratic Electors on it. We believe that the statement is a falsehood, out and out. We have not heard of such a thing before. At this office, no other tickets have been or will be printed, except the genuine Democratic ticket. We print no others and we have heard of none others.

This charge of the Standard is, however, good circumstantial evidence that the Radicals are playing that game. Bogus tickets will no doubt be printed at the Standard office. Let our friends examine their tickets.

TEST OATHS.

The unconstitutional character of test-oaths, is a point about which, few persons in this State have any doubt. The able and exhaustive arguments of Gov. Graham, in more than one instance, have furnished our readers, perhaps, with as much upon that subject as is needful. It may not, however, be amiss to strengthen the convictions of our people by the able opinion of Judge Miller, and his learned associates of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, in a recent case brought before that tribunal. The Court which made the decision, was composed of five Republican and three Democratic Judges. Three of the Judges only dissented. Of course, the three were Radicals.

This subject, says the New York World, perhaps more than any other, demands the attention of the whole country, in view of the approaching Presidential election. In Tennessee, eighty thousand citizens are disfranchised by a test-oath, which has no more legal obligation than the paper on which it is printed. In Missouri a similar oath is enforced, in direct violation of the Constitution, and in contempt of a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. The same is true, in Arkansas, in West Virginia, and in other States. In the three States of Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas, the disfranchisement or punishment of the whole population is declared without trial, conviction, or even without the ceremony of a test oath. The hopes of the Republican party rest mainly upon the arbitrary and unconstitutional disfranchisement of a large portion of the qualified voters in nearly one-third of the Union. This is the question to be considered: What will be the tenure of a President of the United States, if elected by a great public wrong? Will it be a lawful, a constitutional choice of Chief Magistrate, when large masses of legal voters are not allowed to participate, and the choice is determined by force and fraud, in defiance of plain constitutional rights? Will a President, so elected, be a lawful ruler of the people, or a mere usurper? The situation of the country becomes more and more critical as we depart more and more from the landmarks of the Constitution. Revolutions, civil wars, are born of attempts to govern the people by lawless power. "Let us have peace" are the words of one who wields the sword and commands the army. But short of the settled repose of despotism, when force shall have finally subjugated liberty, there can be no peace except the peace of the Constitution.

BAD WHISKEY AND BAD TEMPER.

These two things cause most of the turbulence and crime in the country. Were it not for the prevalence of liquor drinking and the indulgence of bad temper, our country would be safe from collision, crime and ruin. The perpetuity of the Republic would be certain, if these were banished from the land. The National debt which is so enormous, could be paid off in a few years, if the money expended for liquor were appropriated to its payment. If our law makers and officiary were all sober men of genuine patriotism, the expenses of this great government could be reduced at once to about $70,000,000, instead of three or four hundred millions.

There was but little done by our late Legislature that was done well. The following act, however, is an exception to the general rule. We publish it and would especially call the attention of the Sheriffs and Magistrates and town authorities as well as all good citizens to the necessity of its enforcement. Let the law be enforced against all offenders:

SECTION 1. That no person or persons shall give away in any public place, retail or sell except upon prescription of a practicing physician, and for medical purposes, any intoxicating liquors, at any time within twelve hours next preceding or succeeding any public election or during the holding thereof, at any place within five miles of any election precinct.

SEC. 2. That any person or persons violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable with a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

SEC. 3. That this act shall take effect from the date of its ratification.

[Ratified 19th day of August, 1868.]

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

PRAY FOR THE COUNTRY.

A pious and intelligent lady writes us an interesting letter, urging us with good reason, to call upon the pious, praying people of the country, to pray for the peace, prosperity and harmony of the whole land, that God may direct the people in choosing such men to rule the nation at the approaching election, who will so administer the government, in accordance with the Constitution, and in conformity to His will, as that the peace and prosperity of the whole nation may be secured, the blessings of Constitutional liberty may be continued to us and our children, and His glory promoted. She suggests that the 2nd. day of November be observed as a day of fasting and prayer for these objects. We endorse the proposition and have heretofore suggested the idea. God rules in heaven above and on the earth beneath and holds in His hands the destiny of nations and of individuals. He will be enquired of by his people and has promised to hear the prayer of faith. Let all the people therefore pray, remembering that Christ has said, "And whatsoever things ye shall ask the Father in my name, believing that ye receive them, ye shall have them."

MR. ADAMS' SPEECH.

Our readers will please not overlook Mr. Adams' speech at home, published on our first page. It is admirable in tone and tells the plain, naked truth, as we understand it.

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we must carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

"THE REBELLIOUS SOUTH."

We have repeatedly asserted, what is capable of proof by irrefragable facts and arguments, that there is no hostility, no rebellion in the South, against the Federal Constitution and government or against the Federal Union. There is a universal desire among our people for harmony and the restoration of good feeling with every section and with all the people of the United States. There is opposition, nay hostility to Radical principles and Radical measures, and a determination to defeat and remove them by the agency of the ballot box, but not otherwise.

If riots and high crime among a people, are evidences of disloyalty and rebellion, then there is less of it in North Carolina and has been since the war, than in any other State in this Union. If collision and discord between white and black, are proof of disloyalty and rebellion, then North Carolina is the most loyal State in the South. Our criminal record, while it will show many petty larcenies, and a few large robberies and burglaries, at the same time will show fewer murders, rapes and diabolical crimes, than any other State. There is less disorder, fewer riots and more general quiet, than in any other State. This state of things, with slight exception, has existed ever since the war. Gov. Holden knows this to be true. He unhesitatingly declared it to be so, two years ago or more, and there has not been any cause for a change of opinion.

The alarm evinced recently by Governor Holden, in reference to organized armed bands, was without proper foundation.—Our people regard it as a mere subterfuge, a pretence to create unnecessary alarm and to operate upon the Northern elections. His long proclamation, in which he seems determined to have a rebellion, is regarded as a mere raw head-and-bloody-bones affair, and excites nothing but a smile or a sneer. It has not stirred a ripple upon the surface. The fact is, every man, woman and child in the State, have had enough of war and turmoil. It would be pleasant to our people never to hear a drum or see a soldier,—they have so little inclination for strife. Their only concern, and this is general, is to make a dollar or turn a sixpence to advantage. If Gov. Holden and his party would show the example of economy and thrift and endeavor to instruct the people in making a living, instead of spending the people's money without stint, he would better magnify his office. Our people have no stomach for a fight or a row with any one, much less with each other, either black or white, even at Governor Holden's bidding. They are determined to live just as long as God will permit them, and let others enjoy the same liberty. They are after the almighty dollar in hot haste. The blacks seem to have the same opinion, but unfortunately do not love hard work any more than the whites. They both want to live in the old North State till they die, and hence should learn to cultivate good feeling and friendship towards each other. The blacks do not wish to go to Davy Jones' locker soon, or any worse place, and hence they will not provoke the whites to a collision, and vice versa the whites will not disturb them. "Let us have peace," say they, but not the peace of the sword which the Radical party invokes, but the peace pledged by the Constitution and the laws!

OUR ELECTORAL TICKET.

We observe that some of our cotemporaries do not print our Electoral ticket correctly. Col. Leroy M. AcAfee is printed Lee M. McAfeee, because of the practice of so calling him. Our Elector in the fifth District, Marmaduke S. Robins, of Randolph, is also incorrectly printed, in some instances. We did the best we could to print the name correctly, and succeeded, except in Col. McAfee's name, until recently, not knowing his full name. We regret that our candidates did not see the necessity, at the outset, of having their names correctly printed in full.

RALLY, SEYMOUR AND BLAIR MEN!

Work till the day of election and during the day till the polls are closed. See that every man has registered and that every man has the right kind of tickets to vote.—Avoid all bickering and strife. Leave men who will not argue or reason or yield to persuasion. Be honest with every man.—Let truth and your country be your aim. Deceive no one, but press the truth home upon men's convictions and sense of duty to the country.

TICKETS.—We have some reason to fear that our friends in some of the counties are not supplied with tickets. How is it in those counties where there is no press?—Have our cotemporaries looked into it? Our Executive Committee would have instructed the presses as in the late election to supply them, but their inability to pay all before, and the contributions from a few counties and nothing from so many, placed so small a sum in their hands, that it made the Committee fearful of making pledges to pay.

GOV. SEYMOUR.—The route of this distinguished gentlemen, our candidate for President, is marked by the strongest demonstrations of popular favor. It is a continued ovation. Immense crowds throng him at every point to see and hear him. His speeches are specimens of good temper, a conciliatory spirit, but a strong, manly and statesman like presentation of the issues of the canvass. His arguments are telling and the enthusiasm excited by them augurs well for the Democratic cause.

Our friend of the Wilmington Star says: Some of the finest mullets ever seen in this market are being brought to our City this season.

We must admonish our friend of the Star. The old people on the Banks used to say, that fat mullets and French brandy would give any one the gout. Be careful, friend, how you touch.

REMEMBER that delays are dangerous. Therefore register, TO-DAY. Your vote may be necessary to carry the State.

GRANT'S PEACE.

The Tribune responds by a furious article cram full of the names of bloody battles.—What has this to do with the matter in hand? We are not asking what Grant did, but what, if elected, he is going to do. We know how he made war, but how is he to make peace? That is the question. The Tribune has not answered it. We must, therefore, pass it to the next boy. How is this peace man of yours to let us have peace? Beecher says we must have "in the Presidential chair at Washington a man that knows how to drive." Sherman says that in his election "the carpet-baggers, scallawags, and loyal negroes will be above the rebels of the South." Ben Wade says that he will have peace; he will "fight for peace;" that he will "desolate the South" but what he will have it. What say you? The Tribune skulks. It can't or it won't, say How? It prances and ambles about, but it don't come up to the scratch; and if the rest of you flinch we shall have to fall back on the peace man himself, whose idea is that, "believing it to be the province and duty of every good government to afford protection to the lives, liberty, and property of her citizens, I would recommend the declaration of martial law * * * to secure these ends." (Letter January 29, 1867.)—Nice peace this is.—N. Y. World.

DECIDED.—The Goldsboro' Messenger very truly says:

"There is no half-way ground for any man. He must be on the one side or the other. He must be for us or against us."

MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS.

PURSUANT TO PREVIOUS NOTICE, THE several Commissioners heretofore appointed to open Books for subscription to the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, met at the town of Morganton, in the Court House in said town, on the 15th day of October, 1868.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, Hon. A. T. Davidson was called to the Chair, and R. F. Simonton appointed Secretary.

The roll of Commissioners was then called, when it was ascertained that a majority of said Commissioners were present.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, a Committee of three was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Gen. R. M. Henry, C. W. Swepson and Dr. S. L. Love, to inspect the books of subscription returned by the Commissioners, to ascertain what amount of stock had been subscribed.

On motion of Gen. R. M. Henry, it was resolved that said Committee be instructed to declare all stock subscribed on which 5 per cent had not been paid heretofore, or at this time, void.

Said Committee retired, and after a short time reported that 3,080 shares, of $100 each, had been subscribed, amounting to $308,000, on which the 5 per cent. had been paid, to wit: $15,400.

It was then ordered that the books of subscription reported by the Commissioners be turned over to the Stockholders.

On motion, the Commissioners' meeting then adjourned.

And it is resolved by the Board, that responsible persons who shall subscribe for such Capital Stock, shall have the opportunity to pay for such stock in work, and to that end shall have reasonable contracts to do work on said Road. And

Resolved, further, That it is the settled purpose of this Board of Directors, under the direction of the Stockholders, to expedite, in every proper way, the completion of the Western Division of said Road, and they cordially invite the co-operation of all persons for this purpose.

NEW YORK.

THE

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rate, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the insurance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS.—J. A. Jones, Esq., bookseller, has laid on our table several interesting little books for children, which he sells cheaply: Such as Scripture stories of David, Samson and Ruth, Old Woman and the Pig, and Aunt Kitty's Nursery Rhymes. They are well adapted to the purposes for which they are prepared.

OYSTERS.—We are indebted to our colored friend, Henry Smith, at the Express Office, for a present of fresh Norfolk oysters. He receives them daily and will deliver them at the residences of those who desire it, at reasonable prices.

SICKNESS.—We regret to learn that chills and fever have been very prevalent, this season, in the lower Counties. In some sections, they have been more prevalent than usual. The recent frosts are favorable to health, and we hope to hear of a rapid improvement.

SOWING WHEAT.—The farmers of this State are sowing wheat. We hope a large sowing will be generally effected. The difficulty of paying for labor, renders it absolutely necessary that our farmers shall put in large crops of wheat and oats, and give more attention to the growing of clover and grasses.

COTTON CROP.—We judge that the cotton crop is coming in quite well. Quite a large quantity has been brought to this market, already, and good prices have been obtained. If prices rule much lower, however, those who can hold on, will not be disposed to sell. Crowding the crop early upon the market, last year, had the effect of bringing prices far below a living rate. The crop, generally, in the South, we judge, will be shorter than last year, owing to the fact that less was planted. If so, prices will be better sustained.

REV. MR. PEPPER, Chaplain to the 40th U. S. Regiment, colored troops, seems to be devoting his time in some of the upper counties, to enlightening the people on politics. We judge from the tone of our exchanges, that neither the Radicals nor Democrats appreciate his pious efforts in this regard. He is the only spread-eagle orator in this State among the Radicals, except when Joseph the Governor's son, and Mr. Douglas, the Governor's Private Secretary, try their school boy efforts.

COLORED MAGISTRATES.—Jordan Chambers, a colored man, has been appointed a Justice of the Peace, for Iredell county, and has qualified. Can he write his name, friend Drake, or spell Bob backwards?

UNIVERSITY.—Last Wednesday night, Rev. Wayman, a Bishop of the African Methodist Church, preached in the Chapel of the University of N. C. This was the first public use of the University buildings by its present Trustees. The next may be a meeting of the Union League in the halls of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies.

MASS MEETINGS.—A great Democratic Mass Meeting will be held at Charlotte on Friday next. Able speakers will be present and extensive arrangements are making for a great time.

The great Mass Meeting at Statesville, comes off on Thursday. A good time may be expected.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.—Some Southern people have a very strange appreciation of their own self respect and personal honor, who will patronize the Harper's Illustrated publications and others, which are constantly representing falsely, by ill-tempered caricatures, the manners and status of Southern people. We believe sensational papers of any kind and in the interest of any party are grossly demoralizing and injurious to the peace and well being of society. The Radicals charge the Southern people with being rebel ions and hostile to the North. If so, the South rn people have a strange way of showing it. There are three Northern papers taken in the South to every one of their own home papers, and it would seem that frequently the more abusive of and lying they are upon the Southern people, the more they are patronized. We want peace; hence, we should cease reading those papers which misrepresent us and excite ill feeling in us towards the North.

IMPORTANT DECISION UPON TEST OATHS.

The following important decision was made at the recent session of the Court of Appeals of the State of New York. We precede the opinion by the following exposition of the case by the New York World. It says:

The Legislature of New York at the session of 1867, passed an act providing for the election of delegates to a convention to be held on the 1st Tuesday in May of that year, for the purpose of revising the Constitution of the State. The act contained a provision that any citizen of the State offering to vote, and having otherwise all the qualifications of a voter, might be challenged at the polls for disloyalty, for giving aid and comfort to the enemy, for desertion, for avoiding the draft, &c., and the voter, if challenged, was required to take an oath purging himself from these offences. If he refused to take such oath the act made it the duty of the inspectors of election to reject his vote.

On the day of the election the plaintiff, a citizen of Syracuse, and a registered voter, presented himself before the inspectors and offered to vote for delegates to the Convention. He was challenged under the provision of the law above referred to, and was thereupon required to take the test oath.—Very justly spurning this requirement, and insisting upon his constitutional rights, he refused to comply, and the inspectors of election, acting under the spurious command of the Legislature, rejected his vote. He thereupon instantly brought his action against them to recover damages for this outrage and wrong. The inspectors, admitting the facts, attempted to justify under the authority and enactment of the Legislature. The only question was upon the constitutionality of the test oath, the plaintiff insisting that it was void under that provision of the Constitution of the United States which prohibits the States from passing any "bill of attainder or ex post facto law." The case was first tried before one of the justices of the Supreme Court of the State, who decided pro forma against the plaintiff. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court in banc, held in the Fifth District by four judges, who were all Republicans. They reversed the decision, and adjudged that the plaintiff was entitled to recover his damages on the ground that the law was unconstitutional and void. The defendants appealed to the Court of Appeals, the tribunal of last resort in the State. The case was argued there at the last June term by the Hon. George F. Comstock for the plaintiff, and submitted by the defendants in person. The decision just pronounced affirms the judgment appealed from, and establishes the unconstitutionality and the absolute nullity of the test oath prescribed by the Legislature. It is due to the defendants to say that, justly appreciating the transcendant important of the question, they have concurred in all the steps necessary to procure a speedy decision.

Miller, J.—This case involves the constitutional validity of that part of the act to provide for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of this State, which excludes from the privilege of voting all who refuse to take the test oath prescribed by the act in question (S. L. of 1867, chap. 194, sec. 2, p. 287.)

I think that the oath in question was unconstitutional and invalid. The first subdivision of the tenth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States provides that "no State shall pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligations of contracts or grant any title of nobility." This act declares that no person shall vote at the election for delegates to said convention who will not, if duly challenged, take and subscribe an oath that he has not done certain acts mentioned therein, and inflicts the penalty of political disfranchisement, without any preliminary examination or trial for a refusal to take said oath. Thus the citizen is deprived, upon declining, of a right guaranteed by the Constitution and the laws, and one of the most inestimable privileges of a free government. There can be no doubt, I think, that to deprive a citizen of the privilege of exercising the elective franchise for any conduct of which he has previously been guilty, is to inflict a punishment for the act done. It imposes upon him a severe penalty, one which by the laws of this State is a part of the punishment inflicted after conviction for felony. It arbitrarily and summarily, and without any of the forms of law, punishes for an offence created by the law itself.

When the act in question was passed by the Legislature, there was no law in this State which condemned or characterized the conduct which is punished in this act, by depriving the citizen of the right of suffrage. This law created a new crime, and makes an offence which did not previously exist. It punishes for an act which was not a crime when committed. Besides the statute in question, in violation of the rules of the common law, pronounces judgment of condemnation without evidence, without any opportunity to defend against the charge, and without a trial. It makes the party the accuser of himself, and his refusal to acquit himself for any cause his own condemnation. It punishes for an offence before an accusation is made and a trial had judicially, according to the Constitution and the laws of the land. It compels him, in direct violation of the fifth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, "to be a witness against himself." His refusal to testify that he is innocent operates to produce his conviction, and seals his guilt. The object of the fifth amendment was to prevent the party from being called upon as a witness of his own guilt. To compel him to testify would violate this provision; and indirectly to make a refusal to testify a cause for punishment, effects the very same purpose. It is only an evasion of the provision cited.

Again, the act is essentially, in the particulars indicated, both a bill of attainder, or of pains and penalties, and an ex post facto law. In Cummings against the State of Missouri (4 Wal., 277.) a bill of attainder is defined to be a legislative act which inflicts punishment without a judicial trial. Field, J., in the opinion of the court, remarks: "In these cases, the legislative body, in addition to its legitimate functions, exercis s the powers and office of Judge; it assumes, in the language of the text books, judicial magistracy; it pronounces upon the guilt of the party without any of the forms or safeguards of trial; it determines the sufficiency of the proofs produced, whether conformable to the rules of evidence or otherwise; and it fixes the degree of punishment in accordance with its own notions of the enormity of the offence." The learned Judge cites cases from British history, where bills of this character had been passed, and the court held that the second article of the constitution of the State of Missouri, which requir d a test-oath from priests and clergymen, in order that they might continue in the exercise of their professions, and be allowed to preach and teach, constituted a bill of attainder, within the meaning of the provision of the Federal Constitution, prohibiting the States from passing bills of that character.

The court also held that the clauses of the same article, in depriving priests and clergymen of the right to preach and teach, impose a penalty for acts which were innocent when they were committed, and increase the penalty for certain public offences, and in both particulars violate the prohibition of an ex post facto law. That they further violated that provision in altering the rules of evidence with respect to the proof of the acts specified; thus, in assuming guilt instead of the innocence of the parties, in requiring them to establish their innocence instead of requiring the government to prove their guilt, and declaring that their innocence can be shown only in one way, by an expurgatory oath.

In ex parte Garland (4 Wal. 333,) a similar question was presented, and it was held that an act of Congress which excludes from practising in the Federal Courts any Attorney or Counsellor who refuses to take a test oath, partakes of the nature of a bill of pains and penalties, and is subject to the constitutional inhibition against the passage of bills of attainder, as well as within the inhibition of the Constitution against the passage of an ex post facto law.

The cases cited cover the question discussed, and are decisive and controlling.—But besides, all oaths of an expurgatory character, especially when applied as a means of punishment for past acts, not at the time known to the law as criminal, have been regarded in all countries in modern times as odious and inquisitorial, and passed as they usually are in times of high excitement, upon the return of cool judgment and calm reason, have been condemned and repealed by legislative enactments. Such was the case in our own State after the termination of the revolutionary struggle. Some laws of such a character had been passed during that period; and even after its close, when peace had returned, rigid enactments were made, which excluded from the legal profession many eminent lawyers of that generation. A more enlightened and liberal spirit, however, under the guidance of the most able statesmen and profound jurists of that day, finally prevailed, and those who had been banished from the country were allowed to return, restored to the privileges of citizenship, by the repeal of the disabling laws. The man who differed from his neighbors and friends upon the great question of American independence, after years of absence and expatriation in a foreign land, was allowed to resume his former position in the legal profession, where he commanded the respect, confidence, and veneration of the entire community.

I am also of the opinion that the statute in question violates the Constitution of the State of New York.

The first section of the second article of the Constitution prescribes the qualifications of electors, who shall be entitled to vote "for all officers that now or hereafter may be elected by the people."

The second section of the nineteenth article provides for the submission of the question, whether a Convention shall be called, "to the electors qualified to vote for members of the legislature, and in case a majority of the electors qualified voting at such election shall decide in favor of such Convention for such a purpose, the legislature shall provide for the election of delegates to such Convention." This clause does not confer upon the legislature any power to create disabilities not existing at the time, under the Constitution, or to restrict the right of suffrage which the Constitution has established. It would be extraordinary if the legislature had the right to determine who were entitled to the privilege of voting, and thus, in the exercise of an unlimited discretion, be able to disfranchise any class of citizens, when the right is already clearly established.

The statute also violates section one of article one of the Constitution of this State, which declares that "no member of this State shall be disfranchised or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizens thereof, unless by the law of the land or the judgment of his peers."—The "law of the land" does not mean a statute passed for the purpose of working the wrong, but the law which existed at the time when the alleged offence was perpetrated. The provision was intended to restrict the powers of the Legislature.—(Wynehammer vs. The People, 13 N. Y. 393. 394, and 416, and cases cited.) The act in question pronounces a judgment and disfranchises the elector without judge or jury, or any of the forms required by the ordinary course of legal proceedings.

It also violates section six of article one, which declares that no person shall be held to answer for a crime, except on presentment of a grand jury. And the second section of the same article, which secures the right of trial by jury in all cases in which it has heretofore been held inviolate.

These objections are too apparent to require an extended discussion.

All the judges concurred excepting Hunt, Woodruff and Mason, the latter of whom wrote a dissenting opinion.

NORTH CAROLINIANS AT PRINCETON.

Messrs. Editors:—At an indignation meeting held by the students from North Carolina, at Princeton College, New Jersey, Oct. 20th., Messrs. J. Roseboro, Wm. Glen and M. Shotwell, being appointed a Committee to draft resolutions, the following were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We have read with great disgust and deep indignation, an article entitled "Work" published in the Raleigh Standard, and as we consider it a base attack on the noble women of the South, and of North Carolina, especially, and a vile insult to their honor, virtue, and patriotism; and

WHEREAS, We believe it to be the imperative duty of every son of North Carolina to maintain the purity and noble dignity of her daughters, and to protect them from all such slanderous attacks; and

WHEREAS, We have shown this article to a number of persons, and all, irrespective of party, unite in the opinion that it is an infamous libel and cowardly attack upon those whom every true North Carolinian holds most dear: Therefore,

Resolved, That, though absent for a while from the State, we watch with deep interest everything that tends to promote the welfare of North Carolina, and that we do heartily concur with those who have already denounced this bold, enormous and undisguised libel on the fair daughters of the State.

Resolved, That we do not recognize, in the conduct and motives of the author of this article, any of the characteristics of one who has the true interests of the State at heart; and, furthermore, we consider him unworthy the name of a gentlemen, and undeserving the title of North Carolinian.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Raleigh Sentinel, Wilmington Journal, and Old North State, with a request for publication.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.

The Protestant Episcopal Convention resolved to adjourn sine die on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Wm. Stevens Perry, of Connecticut, was appointed historiographer to the Church in the place of Rev. Dr. Hawks, deceased. The order of the day in relation to the provincial system was taken up and discussed until adjournment.

MISTAKEN.

The Raleigh Sentinel, speaking of the decline of trade in Petersburg, says:

"Norfolk is the only place in Virginia and North Carolina that seems to have risen to and exceeded its former prosperity."

The Sentinel is mistaken. Charlotte has not only risen to its former prosperity, but far exceeded it. We think there has been more new buildings erected here since the close of the war than in any other city or town South of Baltimore; and the wholesale and retail trade of the place is almost double what it was before the war, because our merchants are offering great inducements to buyers, and paying the highest prices for produce, considering the distance we are from the seaboard. Besides, the population has largely increased.

The country surrounding Charlotte for 100 miles is as good as any in the world. The people are industrious and intelligent, peaceable and law abiding, and as noble-hearted as any on the face of the earth.—Are we not justified in expecting that Charlotte, N. C. will soon become the largest and most prosperous City in the South between Norfolk and New Orleans? We confidently and sincerely believe it. If the Editors of the Sentinel had been in Charlotte since the Fall trade opened they would believe it also. When we go from Charlotte to Raleigh we feel lonesome, because we do not see the same activity on the streets or in the stores.

And if the Editors of the Sentinel could see the fine iron front building just erected in this city by R. Y. McAden, Esq., they would give up, probably, that Tucker Hall is not quite up to it.—Charlotte Democrat.

We were not unaware at the time we wrote the article in question, of the enterprise of the people of Charlotte and of its rapid growth, in size and trade, since the war. We have known its rapid progress and have been proud of it, but at the time we wrote, we were thinking only of the seaport towns of the South. We have no doubt our cotemporary is correct, and we are glad to chronicle the prosperity of Charlotte, and endorse what the Democrat says of it. Our cotemporary is however mistaken about the number of buildings erected since the war. Charlotte has done well in that regard, but Norfolk exceeds it in the number of buildings recently erected. We have forgotten the number, but it astonished us when the number was stated to us. Our Norfolk cotemporaries will please ascertain and publish the number of buildings erected in Norfolk, within the last three years.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce says, that Rev. E. M. Forbes of that City has an oyster shell, sixteen inches long, ten inches wide and five inches through. That must have been an old stager, and tough enough.

Through the efforts of Rev. E. M. Forbes of the Episcopal Church, a new house of worship called the Memorial Church has been erected in Newbern, and opened for service under the charge of Rev. W. B. Gordon.

ORANGE COUNTY.—We admonish our friends in Orange of the fact that H. B. Guthrie will be run by the Radicals of that county, to fill the vacancy in the Senate.—We hope, therefore, that there will be no division in our ranks, and that every Conservative and Democrat will stand up manfully to our candidate, whoever he may be, and determine to carry the county largely for our whole ticket.

TEN MILLIONS IN WARRANTS GIVEN IN ONE DAY AT THE TREASURY—HEAVY INCREASE IN THE PUBLIC DEBT!

We stated last week that ten millions were paid at the Treasury in one day.—This looked like a large sum, but we learn that nearly ten millions of dollars in warrants were given at the Treasury in one day this week!

These heavy payments at the Treasury since the statement of the Secretary of the amount of the public debt on the 30th September must show an immense increase when the statement for October appears.—The exhibit for September, instead of showing considerable increase of the public debt, as was anticipated both here and in New York, showed a decrease. This may be explained when the fact is stated that all payments known as quarterages, due and payable on the 30th September, were settled in this month.

The increase of the public debt, which will astonish every one, will not be officially made known till the Presidential election is past, and we give the information now for the benefit of the bond holders, tax payers, and others, whose votes, are to exert a future influence, one way or the other, upon the finances of the country, which are involved in the election of a President for the next four years. If the people should decide in November to continue Radical rule for four years longer, with all the corruption and extravagance of that party, we confess that the prospect will not look very bright for the bond holder. The only hope for payment of the public creditors is by placing a Democratic administration in power, with a statesman like Gov. Seymour at the head, who is an acknowledged master of finance, and who will enforce such a management as will relieve the nation from its present financial embarrassments.—Wash. Express.

NO SUCH WORD AS FAIL.—Every good Democrat is for the Constitution and the Union, and for Horatio Seymour as President. Our country is now groaning under Radical misrule and usurpation, and unless rescued by a determined effort of patriotism, it will lose its proud position among the nations of the earth, and be a sorry spectacle of the failure of republican government.

Unless the signs of the times are deceiving, our delivery is near at hand. Encouragement meets us on every side; and notwithstanding the aid and comfort given to the enemy by false hearted "friends," the people stand firm. Let all true lovers of their country, and all who are in favor of good government, give their hearts and hands to the good cause, and resolve there shall be no such word as FAIL.—N. Y. Express.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27, P. M

Rollins decides that Hotels, whose yearly sales of liquor aggregate $25,000, must exhibit a wholesale liquor sign.

Grant remains West till after the election.

"WAR DEPARTMENT, Oct. 26, 1868.

Brevet Major General L. H. Rousseau,

Commanding Department of Louisiana:

Your dispatch of the 26th, forwarding a message from the Governor of Louisiana, and asking instructions, has been received. You are authorized and expected to take such action as may be necessary to preserve the peace and good order, and to protect the lives and property of citizens. J. M. SCHOFIELD,

(Signed) Secretary of War."

The tenor of Rousseau's dispatches has not transpired, beyond the assertion that they authenticate dispatches published by the Associated Press.

The Star says that a prominent officer, on duty in New Orleans, writes to a staff officer on Grant's staff, that the first Infantry was mostly recruited in New Orleans, and contains a large "rebel" element, and adds there is good authority for saying that this Regiment will soon be transferred to the frontier.

RADICAL INCENDIARISM.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 27, P. M.

There was a large negro Radical meeting in the Court House square this evening. Several white leaders were on the stand. The speeches of whites and blacks were of a threatening and incendiary character. One colored speaker threatened fearful retribution to the Democrats, "when Grant was elected."

He said that the right of his race to vote was obtained by a revolution, and it would take a bloodier revolution to take it from them. The colored people would be law-abiding, peaceful citizens, if they may, but devilish fighting and burning citizens, if they must.

EXODE OF A CARPET-BAGGER.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 27 P. M.

Associate Justice Hoge has taken refuge, North, from the fury of the colored citizens. They have learned that he asserted, some time ago, that he wished he had all the negroes in a ten acre field, and he would go through them with his old Regiment.

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, resuming its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the labo rer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capital into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution: and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively. That any interference by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any state of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must never be grateful ly remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pallers in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to enter it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequence of that war, to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, so do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
